Carefully curated as a tasting plate of comic styles, these works showcase local performers and invite our audience to enjoy a playful and engaging night of theatre.

THE PLAYS

The World Bra Unclipping Championships at Garimba
By Hugh O'Brien

A quirky, laconic Aussie comedy, this award-winning play delivers plenty of laughs. Set in the drought-stricken country town of Garimba. Locals desperately look for an economic boost through tourism. When every big "world event" is taken, the local Business Attraction Group lands on one wildly unexpected idea to put their town on the map.

Destined To Fail
By Catherine McKernan Doris

In an age of digital disruption and online dating, a lady of a certain age takes the old-fashioned route, placing a personal ad in the local paper to find a companion. But her good intentions quickly unravel when she misinterprets modern abbreviations, leading to an unexpected—and very amusing—encounter.

A Little of What You Fancy
By Catherine McKernan Doris

One woman's obsession with changing hobbies and hoarding seems a bit much for her long-suffering other half. All becomes clear when we discover the husband has a little 'hobby' of his own!
